Heavy Vote In Italy Presages Red Defeat

Ballot Counting Begins

90% of Voters Visit Polls

BULLETIN

ROME —(AP)— Anti-communists led by a wide margin in first, unofficial returns from 13 of Italy's 41,657 senatorial voting sections.

ROME —(AP)— Italy ended her fateful national elections today after turning out a tremendous vote which looked like a bad omen for the communists.

The polls closed after 21 hours of voting full of meaning for the future of Europe and possibly for the peace of the world.

Officials estimated 90 per cent of the 29,000,000 eligibles cast ballots. This may be a world record for a free election—and a heavy vote was generally interpreted as favoring anti-communists.

Counting began immediately. The Senate vote is counted first, and early returns are expected late tonight. First returns on 574 seats in the chamber of deputies are due tomorrow.

Anti-communists were greatly heartened by the tremendous outpouring of votes, since they are convinced a heavy vote will count against the left.

Officials forecast a record vote of well over 90 per cent of the eligibles would be recorded in the two-day balloting for the new Italian republic's first parliament —in which the big issue is whether Italy will follow the eastern or the western way of life.

LITTLE VIOLENCE

Government spokesman made light of two attack on army ammunition dumps in northern Italy early Sunday—the only incidents of violence reported. They termed one a "false alarm" and minimized the importance of the other.

The skies cleared over Rome this morning, but remained overcast elsewhere in the nation. It rained over much of Italy yesterday.

The communist newspaper l'Unita charged Christian Democrat poll officials with passing out ballots with their emblem ready checked. The paper asserted 20 nuns and priests had been arrested for irregularities.

The leftist press made considerable note of some reported election irregularities but an interior ministry official called them "chicken feed."

Ohio River Going Down

NEWPORT, Ky. —(U.P.)— The flooded Ohio and Licking rivers retarded today after losing the battle of Newport to hundreds of weary volunteers and 600 soldiers who held the sandbag front.

The Ohio river fell to 64.3 feet this morning after cresting at 64.8 feet, nearly 13 feet above flood level. The river will be below flood stage Friday, river forecasters said.

Agents Nab 7 Taxi Drivers

SPRINGFIELD —(AP)— Seven taxicab drivers today faced charges of selling intoxicants without a license.

It happened this way: Three state liquor inspectors hired cabs in rapid fire fashion early yesterday after night spots closed for the week end.

The inspectors, posing as fellows "dying for a drink," asked each driver how to buy a "snort." The seven drivers allegedly sold bottles of whisky.

Atomic Weapon Tested

WASHINGTON — (UP)— An atomic weapon, presumably an improved atomic bomb, has been tested in great secrecy at Eniwetok atoll in the far Pacific, the atomic energy commission announced today.

There is every indication that the latest atomic test, the world's sixth known atomic explosion, was made with a greatly improved weapon.

It was thought also that it might have involved a deep water test of an atomic bomb. Such a test was called off at Bikini after two bombs were tested there—one dropped from a plane and the other exploded a short distance under the surface.

David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the Atomic Energy commission, and others have said repeatedly that the atomic bomb has been improved constantly at the Los Alamos, N. M.; laboratory.

Military officials connected with the Eniwetok tests have said there would be no ships used as guinea pigs there. The effects of the explosion probably were measured entirely with scientific instruments under closely-controlled conditions.

If such was the case, the Eniwetok explosion, in the view of some scientists, will be the first real scientific test of the atomic bomb since the first one was exploded at Alamogordo, N. M., in the summer of 1945.

Some scientists feel that the two explosions at Bikini were carried out under conditions unfavorable to scientific measurement. The bomb dropped from the air, for example, went off a considerable distance from its scheduled target.

Cuba Lauded By Truman

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman today cited Cuba's struggle for freedom a half century ago as an "inspiration for the hard tasks that confront us in our own time."

"Our own moment of history," the chief executive told a joint session of Congress, "also calls for calmness, for courage, for strength, and above all for the steadfast resolution that, come what may, we shall stand for the right."

Mr. Truman's address was prepared for ceremonies marking the fiftieth anniversary of congressional action declaring Cuba free of Spanish rule.

The President paid tribute to the "valor of the Cuban patriots and American soldiers and sailors who gave liberally of their strength and their blood." He declared:

"The challenge of our time, like the one met so successfully by those we honor today, tests the mettle of men and their institution of government."

Mr. Truman noted that only 90 miles of water separate this country from Cuba and that the two vary greatly in size and strength.

Yet, he went on, "they collaborate harmoniously on a basis of equal sovereignty and independence of action."

Ohio to Get New Building

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today ordered immediate construction of a new state office building on a site now used as a parking lot.

The site is at the south east corner of Front and State streets here, across Front street from the $12,000,000 state office building constructed in 1932.

Governor Herbert gave instructions to proceed immediately to Public Works Director George B. Sowers. He said the state now was leasing 190,000 square feet of office space in Columbus outside the capitol and state office buildings at a cost of $180,000 a year. The new building, he said, should have 450,000 to 500,000 square feet.

REGENT ARRIVES HOME

BRUSSELLS — (AP) — Prince Charles, Belgium's regent, returned home today from a visit to the United States and Canada.

DELUGE WRECKS BRIDGES—Richland county bridges took a beating from the recent heavy rains. Shown at left is the Union street bridge in Butler which fell about one and one-half feet when flood waters undercut the abutments. County Engineer Walter E. Rusk said the bridge would be removed, starting Monday, to prevent damming of the creek. Traffic detours are close, a block away on other side. The Amstutz road bridge, at right, in Bloominggrove township, also damaged by heavy rains, will be replaced. Rusk said work on the bridge will start Monday.

Rail Freight Rate Hiked

Boosts Revenue $300,000,000

WASHINGTON —(U.P.)— The interstate commerce commission today granted the nation's railroads additional freight rate increases estimated to give them $300,000,000 more revenue a year.

The carriers are authorized to make the increases effective after 10 days' notice to the public.

The increases were ordered by regions. Carriers in the east and northeast received the largest boost.

Commission sources estimated the average increase at about four per cent.

The commission said it made the further temporary increase because current reports of railroad operations "reflect increasingly unfavorable results and unfavorable trends because of recent severe winter conditions, work stoppages and like adverse causes."

The carriers late last year were authorized two temporary increases, totaling about 20 per cent. The railroads have been seeking an over-all increase of about 30 per cent, including the 20 per cent.

Call of Spring Beckoning Gardeners

The call of the soil beckoned many a Mansfield gardener today as the mercury climbed to a warm 71 degrees by noon, rounding out the third day of pleasant spring weather for the city.

Cloudy skies, however, were predicted to bring showers tonight and cooler temperature Tuesday.

Hundreds of motorists who thronged the highways and byways yesterday for a refreshing glimpse of spring, witnessed many a dogwood tree stretching its snowy blossoms through a maze of still-unbudded woods. A few fruit trees showed blossoms.

Winter wheat, which in the past two weeks has transformed many a rolling hill in Richland county to a green blanket, has reached the height of six inches in some of the most fertile soil.

BABY SUFFOCATES

MIDDLETOWN —(AP)— Deputy Coroner Thomas Wentzel returned an accidental death verdict in the suffocation yesterday of Loren W. Larson jr., five months. Wentzel said the parents' car ran out of gas en route to their nearby Poasttown heights home and fell asleep in the car while waiting for aid. The baby was dead when they awake.

Neighbors 'Give a Lift'

Bed-Ridden Farmer Sees Fields Plowed

LEXINGTON—While Robert Davidson watched smilingly but moist-eyed from his bed near a window, neighbors plowed and sowed the oats on his farm today.

Eight of them brought their tractors shortly after breakfast and by noon had nearly completed the planting in the 18-acre field Davidson had set aside for his spring oats crop.

Davidson has been seriously ill for six weeks. Four of those weeks he was confined to the hospital. He planned to visit his doctor today on his first trip out-of-doors since he was stricken with a severe cold from which a heart condition developed. It will be weeks before he can do his farm work.

During his illness, Mrs. Davidson has taken care of the milking and other light chores. A neighbor, H. H. Cleland, has been feeding the stock on the 253 acre farm.

While the men folk worked, Mrs. Cleland prepared the dinner at the Cleland farm a half-mile away. The neighbors decided to eat there so as not to excite Davidson unduly.

HAM AND SWEET POTATOES

It was a typical old-fashioned farm dinner with baked ham and sweet potatoes and a lot of fixings.

In addition to the Clelands, farm neighbors who joined in the "give-a-lift" party were John Streitmater, William Cleland, James G. Davidson, a brother of Robert Davidson; Nick Vogel, Paul Rider, Robert Witzke and Fred Herrick.

It wasn't the first time the Davidsons had known first-hand the "help a neighbor" spirit of farm folk.. Two other neighbors, Lester Fox and John Hanson, planted clover seed on a 50-acre wheat field a few weeks ago. They also repaired the fences.

A few days later, eight fruit trees arrived from a nursery. Mrs. Davidson didn't know how she would get them planted. There are the three small Davidson children, 6, 3 and 2, to watch.

Dr. Bruce Sutton came to the farm and planted the trees.

New TB Bid Date Set

Architect Will Open Offers on May 19

The proposed five-story, 84-bed Richland county tuberculosis sanatorium appeared closer to reality today.

Architect Herbert S. Jones announced that readvertising for bids for construction of the hospital will start tomorrow. The bids will be opened at noon May 19 in the county commissioners office.

Jones was authorized by the TB building commission Saturday to proceed with readvertising for contract bids. The first bids were rejected because the general construction offers came to a higher total than the estimate.

County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe today reported his office had sent out more than 40 replies to investment houses concerning the $700,000 worth of TB bonds to be sold.

Bids on the TB bonds will be opened Wednesday noon in the county commissioners' office. Wolfe said he expected many bids to be submitted because of the great amount of interest shown by investment houses.

Soldier Admits Causing Wreck

WINSFORD, Cheshire, Eng. —(AP)—Police said today a soldier in a hurry to get home has admitted he pulled a train emergency cord, causing a wreck fatal to 24 persons.

The soldier said he stopped the train Saturday because he wanted to get off at Winsford, an unscheduled stop. Seven coaches on his train were crushed when a speeding mail train struck it from behind.

Doubt Milk Soon to Drop

Dairymen Foresee No Early Decrease

Mansfield dairymen doubted today if the price of milk would drop below 20 cents per quart in this area until pastures can be used to supplement cattle feeding.

Asked if they would follow Cleveland's one-cent drop in milk, effective today, dairy managers said they expected no price change until the milk supply becomes heavier. Cleveland milk sold today for 19 cents a quart.

"There's been no discussion here yet on lower milk prices," commented Ben Boals, manager of the Page Dairy. "Production is about 15 per cent below the supply at this time last year."

Boals added, however, that if the price drop was adopted here by any one of the dairies, prices would be forced down in all plants.

Robert Craft, manager of the Borden Dairy, said he expected no price drop until May when cattle can be turned out to feed off pastures.

Raps Racial Segregation

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Grant Reynolds, a Negro, told Congress today a nationwide campaign of civil disobedience has been started in protest against segregation of races within the armed services.

Reynolds testified before the House armed services committee as national chairman of the "committee against Jim Crow in military service and training." The committee is considering a military draft bill.

He showed the committee a card saying he will not be drafted for "Jim Crow military service."

Reynolds said this is the first such card to be signed. They will be circulated nationally, he testified, and others of all races will be urged to sign them.

Betty Not Dead, Policemen Find

PASADENA, Calif. —(AP)— A police car roared away from the station to investigate a report of murder or suicide. An excited citizen had telephoned there was an automobile parked near his house with a sign reading: "Betty Is Dead."

When Officer D. M. Palmateer looked at the sign the case was closed forthwith. It read: "Battery Is Dead."

Federal Judge Gives Hint of Jail Sentence

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Justice T. Alan Goldsborough today held John L. Lewis guilty of criminal contempt for not sending the striking coal miners back to the pits when ordered by the court.

The judge announced he will pronounce sentence tomorrow.

He is the same judge who fined Lewis $10,000 and the United Mine Workers $3,500,000 for disregarding a court stop-strike order in 1946. The supreme court cut the union's fine to $700,000 but let Lewis' stand.

Goldsborough, before adjourning court, hinted he is at least considering a jail term for Lewis this time.

He said he did not think, because of the seriousness of the case, it could be decided on the basis of "expediency."

When he fined Lewis in December, 1946, in the other case, the judge said he had to consider the "expediency" involved and was giving a fine instead of a jail sentence.

So his talk of not regarding "expediency" this time suggested strongly Goldsborough is thinking of a jail term for the miners' chieftain.

Goldsborough asked the government to bring in recommendations for punishment at 10 a. m. (EST) tomorrow.

"The court thinks there is no difficulty in deciding the evidence beyond all doubt is sufficient to show the defendants are guilty of criminal contempt," said Goldsborough.

Later, he said "of course the defendants also are guilty of civil contempt on a technicality," but added:

"The court doesn't emphasize the civil contempt."

This indicated the judge might impose a lighter fine on the union this time.

Goldsborough said what the court will do in the way of punishment "is being watched by every lawless element in the world—also by all decent people—to ascertain whether or not the courts have the power to protect the citizens of this country in their normal way of life."

Government officials are watching it also to see what effect it may have on coal mining. Only about two-thirds of the miners have yet gone back to work. Many have said they were waiting the outcome of Lewis' contempt trial.

MINE BOSS SNEERS

Lewis sat with a half sneer on his lips as Goldsborough talked extemporaneously about his ruling.

When court adjourned, Lewis waved aside reporters. He walked silently out with his lawyers.

After the judge's decision, Lewis' attorney made the usual routine motion to set aside the verdict. Goldsborough denied it.

Presumably, the union will carry the case to the supreme court as it did the 1946 one.

Goldsborough granted a request by the justice department that a hearing be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. (EST) on the government's request for a temporary injunction under the Taft-Hartley law. The present court order expires next Friday April 23.

This simply means the government wants to keep in effect a court order against a coal strike.

Chiang Takes Presidency

NANKING —(INS)— Chiang Kai-shek, China's leader for more than two decades, became its first constitutional president today.

The veteran generalissimo, who has been provisional president for five years, was elected to the permanent chief executiveship on the first ballot cast by the national assembly in Nanking.

His election by an overwhelming majority climaxed a "Draft Chiang" movement that swept the first constitutional national legislature since he told the assembly a fortnight ago that he did not wish to run for the presidency.

Dies 3 Days After Rescue

Death Takes Oldest Member of Masons

LUCAS—Three days after Lucas volunteer firemen rescued him from his burning residence, J. Howard Rummel, 92-year-old retired druggist, died last night.

Death was attributed to a heart ailment and congestion of the lungs.

Mr. Rummel died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mae Cole, operator of Cole's Market. It was from that house that firemen carried him unconscious last Thursday when fire broke out as the result of a short circuit in a refrigerator.

He was the oldest resident of Lucas. As a youth, he studied to become a doctor but friends induced him to start a drug store here. He operated the store for more than 50 years.

OLDEST MASON

Mr. Rummel was the oldest member of Mansfield Lodge No. 35 of the Masons. He was initiated June 4, 1884. Eleven years later he became a member of Mansfield Chapter No. 28 and of Mansfield Commandery No. 21. In 1908, he became a member of Mansfield Council No. 94.

He was born south of Mansfield Jan. 29, 1856, and had resided in Lucas for 75 years. He had been in ill health for several years.

Surviving besides the daughter at whose home he died are a son, Carl Rummel, of Lucas, and a half-sister, Mrs. Anna Wolford of Bellville.

Friends may call at the Byerly funeral home where services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m., by Rev. P. H. Buchholtz, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. Burial will be in the I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Two Weary 'Scientific' Gamblers Keep on Trying

(Editor's Note: Wide publicity is being given throughout the country to the efforts of two University of Chicago students to beat the roulette tables in Nevada with the "system" described in the following story. Particular interest attaches to the story in view of rumors that the winnings are "a set-up" and that the whole affair is a publicity stunt to attract novices who think they have a "system.)

★ ★ ★

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(U.P.)—Albert Hibbs and Dr. Roy Walford were back at the Nevada roulette wheels today and again were winning with the "scientific" system they invented in college.

The youths were weary and bearded this morning after three days of almost solid gambling. But they were still playing and still winning.

Early today they had run their $300 ante high enough to count $700 in profits. They played continuously, with each man alternating on six-hour shifts.

Hibbs is from Chillicothe, O., and Walford from San Diego, Cal.

They are the same pair that gave casinos at Reno a hard time last year by running their $300 original stake up to $12,000.

Hibbs and Walford were using the same system today that they used last year. They worked it out while they were students at the University of Chicago.

The men start their play by watching a particular wheel for a long period, noting the frequency of numbers in a little black book. Then they apparently bet on the number which turns up most often. They continue to note number frequencies as they play.

They started their play this week end on the same number which won for them last year—number nine. Their $300 stake climbed to $1,200 before the number nine played out and most of their winnings dwindled away.

After 53½ hours play, the pair held a conference and checked the little book in their hotel room. Then they went back to the Golden Nugget casino and began play again with $200 in chips. This time, however, they alternated between the one and zero.

Once more they began winning and early today had built the $200 up to $254. They said that gave them a total profit as of that time of $700.

Crowds gathered five deep around the table to watch them.

Many "nickel" bettors tried to cash in on the system. Casinos throughout Las Vegas reported a heavy run on number nine.

Once, during a run of 146 straight losses on number nine, the number came up and would have paid Walford $96.25. He was talking to a spectator and missed the bet.

He laughed, but quickly stopped talking and concentrated on the wheel.

Returning Of American War Dead Shorter Task Than Anticipated

BROOKLYN ARMY BASE—(AP)—The task of returning American war dead will be completed in half the expected time.

Originally the army thought it would take five years and $200,000,000. This estimate was based on the belief that next-of-kin would request the return for reburial in this country of about 80 per cent of the men who died overseas.

Today the quartermaster corps hopes to complete the program in about two years. Survivors of only 69 per cent of the combat dead of World War II have asked they be returned from the lands where they fell.

An interesting sidelight:

Of 243,398 letters dispatched by last February to next-of-kin asking their wishes, some 54,656 have never even been answered.

What does this figure mean? It means that one out of every five persons hasn't taken the trouble to notify the government what he wants done with the body of a man who when alive listed him as his nearest or dearest relative.

A charitable interpretation of this inaction is that the 20 per cent who didn't reply merely took this means of indicating that they wanted their war dead to remain where they are.

In 10,189 other cases the letters of inquiry were returned as undeliverable. The next-of-kin no longer could be found.

Of some 115,637 reply forms returned and now classified, 79,754—or 69 per cent—requested the servicemna be returned here for burial in a private or national cemetery.

A majority of the war dead pass through the New York port of embarkation on the way to one of the 15 distribution centers throughout the country, where military escorts are assigned to accompany them to their final resting place.

The task is carried on with simple dignity. Each transport is met by 300 to 400 survivors, representatives of veterans groups, and a Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplain. A short memorial service is held.

The dead are listed individually er. After each name is the notater. After ecah name is the notation—(deceased).

"One mother who came down to meet the ship bore up well until she saw her boy listed as a passenger," said Capt. Larry Phelan, combat veteran of the first infantry division. "Then she wept."

The caskets are sealed, as required by law in all states. The question troubled parents ask most often:

"You're sure it's our boy, and there's been no mistake?"

They are satisfied by the army's answer:

"You would never have received a letter of inquiry if the identification hadn't been positive."

Bodies travel home by train from the distribution centers except when the burial site is within 40 miles. In these cases motor hearses are used.

Sometimes as one transport unfreights its war dead at the base here, another is being loaded by troops sailing for overseas posts. The other day a long line of trucks carrying troops assigned to duty aboard rolled into the base as a cortege of somber hearses pulled out, each carrying a serviceman done with life and war.

Court Fines Man For Sale Of Liquor

Earl Smith Arrested In Raid on Barn

One man was fined $300 and costs in municipal court today for illegally selling intoxicating liquor and a second man won a continuance on similar charges.

Herman Sells, 254 Park avenue east, was fined $300 and costs for illegal sale after he changed his plea to guilty. At the request of the city solicitor, charges of being the keeper of a place where intoxicating liquor is sold and of illegal possession of an open flask were dropped.

Earl H. Smith, Mansfield R. D. 3, who was arrested yesterday afternoon by state liquor department agents won a continuance until Friday on charges of illegal sale of intoxicating liquor and of being the keeper of a place where intoxicating liquor is sold. Bond was set at $1,500.

OPERATES BARN

Smith was operating out of a barn on Bowman road outside the city limits near the Empire Steel plant, the agents said.

Smith has a record extending back 12 years during which he has paid $1,700 in fines for liquor law violations.

On March 6, 1936 he was fined $500 and costs and was given 30 days in the county jail, 20 of which ware suspended, for illegal sale of intoxicating liquor. Police said he was operating at that time on North Franklin avenue at the rear of the Greyhound Bus station.

Two years later, in August, 1938, he was bound over to the grand jury for receiving stolen property, but the jury failed to return an indictment.

FINED IN 1939

In April, 1939 he was fined $500 and costs for possession of liquor for illegal sale.

He was arrested in December, 1940, as the keeper of a place where intoxicating liquor is sold but the case was dismissed.

In June, 1944 he was arrested and convicted of fighting and was fined $50 and costs and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

On June 14, 1946, Smith was convicted of selling liquor without a permit and of keeping a place where intoxicating liquor was sold illegally. He was fined a total of $700.

At that time, police said, he was operating at a private house near the steel mill. The building was destroyed by fire and he moved his scene of operations to a barn on the property where he was arrested yesterday by state liquor department agents.

Senior High Pupils Fly Geometric Kites

Ralph Juniper, mathematics teacher at Senior high school, and 22 members of his plane geometry classes held a kite-flying demonstration at the Gun club on Park avenue west yesterday afternoon.

Juniper arranged the demonstration to teach his pupils the necessity for geometric exactness in construction.

The best kite on the basis of scientific construction was built and flown by Paul Light. It was a red and white triangular box kite five feet tall which rose to a height of 200 feet.

A combination kite built by Dean Fryock who invented his own design also received commendation.

Sam Maras and Joe Plew constructed an unusual bird kite, a difficult project because the sticks had to be bent to form the design.

The star kites gave considerable trouble because the students failed to follow construction rules closely and used too heavy material, Juniper said.

SOLID KITE

Another unusual kite, a tetrahedral, was constructed by Del Harris. The kite was a four-sided solid with two sides papered. It is the basic construction for all animated kites. This kite was of particular interest because it is a historically famous type, that studied by pioneers in the field of aviation.

Pupils worked on their kites for the exhibition for about a week. The project was voluntary, but students who took part will receive credit for their work and the constructors of the most unusual and best kites will receive extra credit.

The participants expressed appreciation to C. M. Matthes, president of the Gun club, for use of the grounds.

Four Fined By Court

Fines totaling $225 were meted out to four traffic law violators in municipal court today.

Raymond Kerr, 166½ Crouse street, was fined $125 and costs and his license was suspended for six months for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol. Fifty dollars of the fine were suspended on condition that Kerr pay for damaging the car of L. H. Smith, 800 Grace street.

Clarence Morgan, 210 East Third street, pleaded guilty to failing to stop after an accident and was fined $75 and costs, $25 of which was suspended on condition he pay damages to Forrest Milligan, whose car he damaged. Morgan's license was suspended for six months.

Richard C. Riggenbach, Mansfield, R. D. 4, was fined $15 and costs for unsafe operation of a motor vehicle.

For speeding in a school zone, Alfred M. Colby, 781 Woodland road, was fined $10 and costs.

James Dysart, Dayton, forfeited $25 for crossing the yellow line.

ELKS TO EAT OYSTERS

Elk lodge members will hold their regular meeting at the Elks' home, at 8 p. m. today. Oysters on the half shell will be served following the regular business meeting.

23 Leaders Graduated

'Commencement' Held at Camp

Twenty-three Mansfield Girl Scout leaders were "graduated" from the first camp licensing course over the week end.

"Commencement" was the 24-hour camping trip the leaders took to Camp Miniwan under direction of Miss Margaret Rooney, scout executive and instructor of the course, and Mrs. Charles F. Orr, representative of the camp committee.

Mrs. E. G. Pankow served as general chairman of the leaders camp training course.

Started in an effort to reduce the number of camp accidents among the scouts during overnight hikes and to train the leaders better to carry on the responsibility of extended camping, the course has been made mandatory for all scout leaders who take girls on overnight camp-outs.

"We're hoping that every girl can use the camp more fully this year because of the course," Miss Rooney said. "No scouts will stay over night at the camp unless they are under the supervision of a licensed leader. Troops which have no licensed leader may 'borrow' one of the licensed women for their all-night hikes."

LIST OF GRADUATES

Completing the coure were Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. L. W. Bailey, Mrs. Robert F. Bair Mrs. Charles Birdsong Mrs. M. L. Barnett, Mrs. Kenneth Benzing, Mrs. C. F. Brickley Mrs. Tom Ford, Mrs. Kenneth Hague, Mrs. Garland Harris, Mrs. Harold Hoover, Mrs. J. P. Keith, Mrs. Philip Lodge, Mrs. Walter McEvoy.

Mrs. John Noble, Mrs. Orr, Mrs. E. G. Pankow, Mrs. H. F. Plaut, Mrs. V. C. Phelps, Mrs. John Scheurer, Mrs. Sam Theaker and Mrs. Chester Wharton.

Up and Down the Street . . .

PRETTY JURIST—

Judge H. H. Schettler had a pretty companion on the bench in municipal court today. Miss Barbara Bowles, 131 Glenwood boulevard, a civics student at Senior high school, was sent as a representative of her class to report on the functioning of the courts.

TIME OUT FOR VOTES—

Deputy Sheriff Harold Marvin took a two-week-leave of absence today to "push doorbells." That's one of the things he'll be doing as he pushes his campaign for the Democratic nomination for sheriff.

Deputy Marvin went off the pay-roll for the two weeks, Sheriff Robinson said. Marvin is one of three seeking the Democratic nomination. Four men are out for the Republican nomination.

TRUTHFUL RECORD—

Miss Ruth Them of 100 Blymyer avenue found out that records don't lie. She bought a new record player the other day and purchased a number of records for it. As she was returning home she dropped her package and one of the records broke. When she picked up the pieces she found that the broken record bore the appropriate title, "It Doesn't Matter Now."

County Road Fund Grows

A total of $17,200 in state monies for road work was received today, County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe reported.

Wolfe said that $10,000 of the sum was for the county's road fund. The $7,200 goes to the 18 townships for their road funds, each receiving $400.

The money comes out of gasoline taxes collected in Richland county.

Also received were checks in the amount of $2,516 in state aid and $1,401 in federal aid for the county's Aid to the Blind program.

Two other checks received included $6,141 in state aid and $2,701 in federal aid for the county's Aid to Dependent Children program.

Voters Appear Apathetic

Taft, Stassen Hold Top Roles

By ROBERT VINCENT

COLUMBUS—(INS)—The Ohio pre-primary political campaign entered its stretch drive today as candidates redoubled their efforts to stir up interest in the balloting just two weeks from tomorrow.

So far, only the Republican presidential contest for delegates between Sen. Robert A. Taft and former Minnesota Gov. Harold E. Stassen seems to have created anything other than a "so what?" attitude on the part of the voters.

None of the contests for nomination to state office, not even the bitter Frank J. Lausche-Ray T. Miller feud for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, seem to have evoked much interest to date.

It is always true, of course, that parties and candidates wait until the final days of a campaign to fire their heaviest ammunition. It is not improbable that, when May 4 comes, the balloting will be as heavy as it was in 1944, the last previous presidential year.

Republican state headquarters, solidly in back of Taft, is working evenings and Sundays, pouring out an avalanche of political broadsides in its attempt to stop Stassen.

The Minnesotan is contesting for 23 of the state's 53 convention delegates, and since his smashing victories in Wisconsin and Nebraska he is conceded a good chance to capture a dozen or so.

PRESTIGE AT STAKE

Even though they would all be in industrial areas, where Taft sentiment is low because of the Taft-Hartley labor bill, the loss of a dozen Ohio delegates would be a blow terrifically damaging to Taft's national prestige.

There can be no comparison of strength on the number of delegates Taft gets to the number Stassen gets, since 30 of the 53 delegates will go to the senator by default. Stassen has no candidates entered in rural or solidly-Republican areas, and has entered only one candidate for delegate-at-large.

Taft himself is cognizant of the danger Stassen represents. At Burton yesterday, the senator declared that Stassen "could have been in the Senate to help fight the New Deal" the last two years.

Taft said that Stassen "claims to be more liberal than I am," but added:

"I don't know what he means he is 'more liberal' in. Liberal means more freedom. The New Deal is not liberal. Our cause is for a more liberal country under the principles of freedom.

"Stassen could have been in the Senate the last two years, but he sent another man and spent two years campaigning for the presidency. I wish he would help fight the New Deal in Washington."

Burglar Gets Barber Tools

A daring burglar, who police believe climbed into a lighted room on North Franklin avenue last night and carried away $118 in tools and clothing and $12 in cash, was sought by officers today.

Investigation of the premises at 222 North Franklin was made after Mrs. Margaret Johnson reported the theft at 6:01 a. m.

Clarence Finley, a roomer, told officers that $12 in cash; $25 worth of barber tools, and $93 worth of clothing were missing. Finley said he fell asleep with the lights on in the room and that he didn't hear anyone during the night.

Investigation by officers, however, disclosed that the burglar entered Finley's bedroom through an open window looking out over a porch roof.

Major Leagues Open for Business Today

Today's Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(UP)—It's "play ball" in the major leagues today and as the world champion New York Yankees open defense of their American league pennant against the Washington Senators they agree unanimously that it's the Boston Red Sox they have to beat.

From Manager Bucky Harris on down to the bat boy the Yankees have great respect for the Red Sox. But Harris cautions that "if we two have bad luck in the line of injuries either Cleveland or Detroit easily could win."

And over in the National league, where the Brooklyn Dodgers hope to retain their laurels, Lippy Leo Durocher comes back to the helm with the statement that:

"The St. Louis Cardinals are the ones we'll all have to beat."

★

THE YANKEES, however, leave no doubt that they look upon themselves as the class of their circuit. But they put the finger on the strengthened Boston ball club as the chief challenger.

Joe DiMaggio, the kingpin of the Yankee attack, gave the Bosox the nod naturally on their power.

"They have a lot of it," Joe explained. "But I think I can say we have a fair amount ourselves."

DiMaggio, who reported that his sore arm "feels okay now," got agreement from Charley Keller, almost fully recovered from a spinal operation. King Kong, the healthiest looking sick man in captivity, said he was feeling stronger every day.

"And we'll have to have all our strength against those Red Sox," he said. "But don't overlook that great Detroit pitching and the fact that Cleveland has a great all-around club."

★

SECOND BASEMAN George (Snuffy) Stirnweiss also suggested that Cleveland might be more of a factor in this year's pennant race than anybody imagined. Yet, he, too, picked the Red Sox as the club which will give the Yankees the most trouble.

Little Billy Johnson jumped on the Bosox bandwagon, also, as the Yankees discussed their pennant prospects. And Big Tommy Henrich, another of the Yankee power sparkplugs, agreed.

But whether it will be New York, Boston, Cleveland, Detroit or one of the others who gallops down the stretch in front, all the players were united in their job that the long spring training grind was over and it was time to:

"PLAY BALL!"

Washington Entertains Yankee Club

By RALPH RODEN

NEW YORK — (AP) — Major league baseball teams knuckle down to serious business today with both the National and American leagues opening their 1948 baseball seasons.

The cry—"play ball" will sound at Washington, Boston and Cincinnati with 125,000 fans expected to witness the proceedings.

The world champion New York Yankees, picked by the experts to win their second straight American league pennant, will begin defense of their laurels at Washington.

A crowd of 31,000—including President Harry S. Truman who will toss out the first ball—is expected to watch the New York-Washington battle.

REYNOLDS VS. WYNN

Allie Reynolds, who blanked Washington in the 1947 inaugural, is slated to hurl for the Yanks with Early Wynn pitching for Washington.

However, before either Reynolds or Wynn even warm up, the first official game should be in the record books.

This game was scheduled at Boston where the Red Sox take on the Philadelphia Athletics in a morning and afternoon doubleheader. Boston officials expect 60,000 fans to take in the twin bill.

National league warfare opens at Cincinnati where the Reds entertain the Pittsburgh Pirates. About 35,000 fans are expected.

Ewell Blackwell, the majors' top winner with 22 triumphs in 1947, has been nominated to hurl for the Reds against Pittsburgh's Hal Gregg, off-season acquisition from Brooklyn.

CARDS MEET REDS

The remaining clubs will begin playing for keeps Tuesday. The St. Louis Cardinals, picked to win the National league pennant, entertain Cincinnati. The defending champion Brooklyn Dodgers meet the home-run hitting Giants in New York. Other National league games find Boston at Philadelphia and Chicago at Pittsburgh.

In the American league tomorrow, New York is at Washington, Detroit at Chicago and St. Louis at Cleveland. The Athletics and Red Sox are idle.

If the attendance at yesterday's exhibition games is any criterion, the majors are in for one of their greatest years at the gate.

A total of 198,427 fans witnessed the eight games played by the 16 clubs with the tussle between the Dodgers and Yanks at the Yankee stadium luring the most—62,369, a record for an exhibition game.

The Dodgers, however, beat their 1947 world series foes, 5-3, to spoil the 25th anniversary of the opening of the Yankee stadium.

BOWLING BANQUET

The annual Club league bowling banquet is scheduled tonight at the Southern hotel.

Dick Metcalf Takes Lead In N-J Head Pin Tourney

All Mansfield bowlingdom was still talking today about one of the neatest exhibitions of head pin bowling seen here in some time. It was turned in by a Class B bowler—Richard Metcalf—on the Richland Recreation alleys yesterday.

Metcalf blasted 15 strikes in 36 frames to rack up a 333 score and take over first place in the News-Journal head pin tourney. He replaced Roy Craig, who had held the position of over-all leader since opening night of the tournament three weeks ago. Craig, who rolled a 323, stills holds forth at the head of the A division, however.

Metcalf started out with a modest but consistent 108, tacked on 111 and finished hot as a firecracker with 114. He had six strikes in each of the last two games, five in a row in the middle one.

GOES INTO THIRD

One other change was made in the standings over the week end, Joe Harrod climbing into third place in the A division with a 293 game. He had games of 101, 98, and 94.

Other high scores posted included Winnie Cleckner's 277, Ike Detrick's 270 and Blackburn's 257 in Class A. J. R. Hetler got a 257 in Class B and Ray Harrod a 243 and Jack Maurer a 228 in Class C.

One hundred ninety-nine bowlers have competed so far in the tournament.

Indians Rap Giants In Final Exhibition

CLEVELAND—(INS)—"Bullet Bill" Shakespeare once said, "All's well that ends well."

Ol' Will may not have been a baseball fan, but followers of the Cleveland Indians were applying his adage today to the Tribe's spring barnstorming trip. The Indians certainly ended well in their final prepper for tomorrow's opener against the St. Louis Browns.

The Redskins put on their most impressive display of the spring campaign in power, speed and pitching before 16,297 fans yesterday to wallop the New York Giants, 13-2, at the Cleveland stadium.

The Indians took the pitch from the Giants and blasted out three home runs to hand the New Yorkers their eighth setback in 17 contests with Cleveland on their spring barnstorming trip north from Arizona.

MURRAY BIG GUN

Ray Murray was the hero for Cleveland, pounding out three hits, including a home run. Larry Doby, Ken Keltner, Joe Gordon and Johnny Beradino counted two bingles apiece in the 13-hit Cleveland barrage. Gordon and Bob Lemon, starting and winning pitcher, also hit for the circuit.

Cleveland started with a pair of runs in the second and sewed things up with another in the third. The Indians counted three times in each the fourth and fifth frames and added four more tallies in the eighth.

Meanwhile, Lemon was limiting the Giants to eight hits, only one for extra bases. The big bat of Bobby Thomson accounted for both New York runs in the fifth when the Giant center fielder hit a homer with Whitey Lockman on base.

Lemon retired after the eighth, but only because of a Cleveland superstition that forbids any pitcher going nine full innings in a spring exhibition contest.

Manager Lou Boudreau likely will stick to his announced lineup for the opener tomorrow.

GAME STARTERS

Doby once more put on a fine exhibition in yesterday's game and it will be hard to keep the colored youth out of the Tribe's lineup much longer.

Improving day by day, Doby appears ready to take over any outfield berth, and probably will do so before many weeks have passed.

Cincy Redlegs Meet Rebuilt Pittsburghers

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Pittsburgh's repainted Pirates and Cincinnati's rampant Reds have the National league stage all to themselves today.

Getting a day's jump on the rest of the senior loop, they'll launch the 1948 campaign before an "SRO" crowd of some 35,000 despite announcement by the noncooperative weatherman that showers were in the offing.

A flock of new faces will be sprinkled among the familiar ones in both lineups, and each club appears stronger than a year ago.

Manager Johnny Neun of the Reds will lead with his ace, elongated and whip-armed Ewell Blackwell, in an attempt to get off on the right foot, while Bill Meyer, new boss of the Pirates, picked Hal Gregg, the former Brooklynite, for mound duties.

Blackwell, baseball's No. 1 pitcher of 1947, has shown impressively during the long training grind.

The Reds, aiming at a berth high in the first division, have won 25 of 36 spring games for the most impressive record in the majors.

Tygers Play At Blue Goose

Site of the Senior high school home baseball games has been shifted to the Blue Goose field, Coach Jimmy Lymper announced today.

The games had been scheduled for competition at Liberty park. The semi-pro Mansfield Grays donated the Blue Goose diamond for use by the Tygers.

Senior high opens its season tomorrow afternoon against the Ashland A's on the Ashland field. The Tygers play at home against Wooster Thursday and go to Galion Friday.

Truman, Vet Southpaw, To Throw Out First Pitch

WASHINGTON —(INS)— Harry Truman, a Missouri veteran who has his eye on a different inauguration next year, today officially opens the 1948 major league baseball season.

The President, whose contract is up for renewal in November, will toss out the first ball in a game between the world champion New York Yankees and the Washington Senators.

Mr. Truman, a veteran southpaw, will take on the role of a switch pitcher when he makes his ceremonial toss with his right hand.

After cutting loose with his opening pitch, the President will turn over the hurling duties to Allie Reynolds of the Yankees and Early Wynn of the Senators.

RELIEFERS?

Sittin gamong the 33,000 fans will be two others who would like to relieve Mr. Truman of the rest of his duties. They are house speaker Joe Martin of Massachusetts and Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, two Republican presidential possibilities.

Martin, accompanied by baseball commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler, American league president Will Harridge and president Clark Griffith of the Senators, will march out to center field and raise the flag before the presidential ceremonies.

The matter of having a President throw out the first ball started back in 1910 when William Howard Taft journeyed out to the ball par kand pitched one all the way to the pitcher's mound.

Two of the most avid presidential fans were Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding.

Harding used to own a minor league club in Marion, O., and kept a complete score card when he attended games in the Capital.

Buck Thinlies Rap Two Foes

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Ohio State's chances of seeing a western conference track "grand slam" looked bright today after the Big Nine indoor kings opened their outdoor campaign with an overwhelming victory over Purdue and Michigan State Saturday.

The Bucks won 13 events and scored in all 14 on the program to pile up 94 points. Purdue managed to edge Michigan State, 34½ to 32½.

Versatile Lloyd Duff set an OSU record at 13 feet, 11¾ inches in the pole vault and also won the broad jump and high hurdles.

Mike Cannavino Lost To State Grid Team

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Mike Cannavino, first-string halfback, is lost for the remainder of Ohio State university's spring football drills.

He suffered a rib separation in Saturday's scrimmage and trainer Ernie Biggs said yesterday Cannavino would be unable to play until fall. Cannavino, a Clevelander, was hampered by injuries last fall, but won first-team honors in spring practice.

New Jersey Casts Eye On Stassen

Governor Ranks As 'Favorite Son'

TRENTON, N. J.—(U.P.)—Thirty-five delegates pledged unofficially to vote for Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll as a "favorite son" on the first ballot at the Republican convention in Philadelphia in June will be named at the New Jersey primary election tomorrow.

The delegation's second-ballot choice for the presidential nomination remained to be seen, but the showing made in Nebraska and Wisconsin by former Gov. Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota made an impression on the delegation.

Governor Driscoll has professed no interest in the presidential nomination, although he has been mentioned in the state as a possibility for the vice presidency. All of the avowed candidates for the Republican nomination steered clear of New Jersey's primary, where the delegates in reality are "wide open" after the first ballot.

PERSONAL REQUEST

Under New Jersey laws, a presidential aspirant must write personally to the secretary of state to have his name put on the primary, ballot. None did so, although backers of Gen. Douglas MacArthur sought to have his name included and were refused because they lacked his sanction.

The Republicans will send 28 district delegates and seven delegates-at-large to the national convention, while the Democrats will send 28 district delegates and 16-delegates-at-large to Philadelphia.

The latter, under supervision of the Democratic state organization headed by former Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, are committed to the nomination of President Truman.

Henry A. Wallace's third party movement has filed a petition of candidacy in New Jersey, but because Wallace and his running mate, Sen. Glen H. Taylor, (D-Ida)., are classified as "independents" they do not figure in tomorrow's primary. Their names will appear on the ballot in the general election Nov. 2.

Needs Told By Lausche

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Former Gov. Frank J. Lausche last night called for a five-point program to "safeguard Ohio's human resources," and said the state should become a leader among the country's "most civic minded states."

The candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination told members of "Friends of Lausche" clubs the state faces an "urgent need" of carrying forward advances made by Ohio under his administration.

These programs, he said, should be improved: Care of mentally ill, unemployment compensations, and aid to dependent children, the blind and aged.

"Ohio must become realistic and face the fact that the shrunken dollar calls for a revision in the state's schedules for aid to dependent children, the blind and the aged, as well as in unemployment compensation," he said.

Today's Quiz On Cancer

Q—How is cancer treated?

A—By surgery, x-ray or radium, used singly or in combination by reputable physicians. "Quacks" who advertise a sure cure for cancer are proclaiming the impossible, for there is no sure cure. The success of surgery, x-ray and radium depend entirely upon the stage the cancer has reached when treatment is begun. That's why it's so important to begin early, and there are thousands of cured cases on file with the American College of Surgeons because the cancer patients started treatment in time.

Stretching Your Dollar

Tips Show How to Fight Soaring Prices

NEW YORK—(AP)—Most business prophets say the high cost of living will be with us for a long time. Some think more inflation may be on the way.

"Making ends meet" will continue indefinitely as a major problem for millions of Americans. Shopping experts say low income groups can offset high prices partially if they take care on how, what, when and where they buy. An alert consumer may save up to 20 per cent on purchases by following a few simple rules.

A survey of spokesmen for leading retailing groups, government agencies and business research organizations suggests it is possible for the average family to buy ordinary necessities at lower than the customary prices. But, these men warn, you may have to spend its equivalent in time, thought or work.

Here are some of the general ways experts say you can cut costs:

Carefully compare values of competing products and competing stores. Some stores feature one brand of products at prices much lower than their competitors. Many stores which are high-priced on most things may feature some at cost or less, just to lure new trade. You will have to seek out the facts for yourself, remembering that a store's reputation for backing its claims—and for making good on items that prove unsatisfactory—also is important.

Study specifications and standards. Sometimes high-priced clothes are made to look good, but wear poorly.

Plan purchases in advance so that you can act when special sales come. For example, prices of clothing at end-of-season clearances may be as much as 50 per cent lower.

Buy in quantity the goods you use often. Large sizes of most foodstuffs are often cheaper per ounce of contents than small sizes.

Do things yourself. In many cases you may be paying for services you can perform yourself. For instance, unpainted furniture which you can finish at home usually is much cheaper than the same article already painted.

Make things yourself. Often clothes, baked goods and other foods that need processing can be made at home at much less than their "processed" prices at the store.

The National Better Business shoppers to beware of rackets, Bureau warns price - conscious however. It says that shoddy merchandise bought for a small amount may prove more costly than quality goods for which you pay more. It urges you to suspect:

"Bait advertising," where some things are advertised at prices the advertiser never intends to follow. The idea is to lure the costumer into the store and sell him something inferior at a higher price.

"Wholesale houses" with retail showrooms. The Better Business Bureau says "it is impracticable to maintain a policy of selling retail at wholesale prices."

Fake "Selling Out" or "Going Out of Business" sales.

"Money Back Guarantee." A guarantee, the bureau says, is only as good as the person who gives it and the promises of a swindler are worthless.

Smuggled goods. Peddlers often give this description to all kinds of trashy stuff which seems cheap but really is greatly over-priced.

Navy Awards Engine Contract To Wright

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Wright Aeronautical corporation announced Saturday it had been awarded a $17,518,135 contract to build improved Cyclone 18-cylinder radial aircooled engines for the navy.

Rated as 2,700 horsepower, the engine can achieve greater horsepower through the use of water injection, Curtiss-Wright said.

Tragedy Has Happy Ending

NEW YORK — (AP) — Maria Farmicola, 21, of Naples, Italy, and Anthony Cataneo, also 21, of Staten Island, were married Saturday in the Church of St. Mry of the Assumption.

Nearly 400 friends and relatives crowded the church at Port Richmond, Staten Island, to see the young couple married and to remember last December when—

A boat pulled into a New York pier with Maria aboard, dreaming of an American home and husbnd. She kept looking for James McIntosh, a Guerrant, Ky., ex-soldier, who was to become her husband. Instead immigration officials were waiting on the pier with the news that McIntosh had been killed in an auto accident.

Report Raps Pasteurization, Artificially Colored Food

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Pasteurized milk and artificially colored foods are contributing to American dietary shortcomings, Dr. Royal Lee, Milwaukee dentist, ascerted Saturday.

Despite the arguments in favor of milk pasteurization, Dr. Lee said in a paper prepared for delivery to the American Academy of Applied Nutrition, the process devitalizes it in some ways and does not prevent some of the diseases attributed to raw milk.

He cited research by Dr. Francis M. Pottenger, a California physician, which he said showed that a pasteurized milk diet impaired the health of cats in a long-term test.

Dr. Lee said other researchers had demonstrated the "basic dishonesty" of arguments that pasteurization is necessary to prevent undulant fever in humans

Diseases such as heart trouble, cancer and arthritis seem "unquestionably due to the devitalization of the basic foods, flour, sugar and milk," he added.

Dr. Lee asserted the use of butter yellow, a chemical dye, to color butter, was responsible for some of the increase in cancer. A few years ago, he said, researchers found that butter yellow was a potent agent in the production of experimental cancer and the practice of using the chemical in butter and cheese was stopped.

Dr. Lee said people might as well eat fats which sell for 10 cents a pound instead of oleomargarine, so far as nutrition is concerned. He said oleomargarine was lacking in phospholipids, or fatty substances, which he asserted are protectors of body chromosomes or hereditary elements in the cells. Butter contains this protective substance, he added.

City Alters Industrial Sewage Rate

New Charge Based On Water Supply

Mansfield industrial plants which have been paying for sewage disposal on a man-hours-worked basis are being put on an amount-serviced basis in order to increase sewer department revenue.

When sewage disposal charges were instituted, it was not considered feasible to charge all industrial plants on the basis of their water bill as is the case with residential customers, because many plants have their own water supply system.

A system was therefore worked out whereby the plant submitted a record of man-hours worked and the sewer charges were computed on that basis.

For residential consumers, the charge was made strictly on the basis of the amount of water consumed.

However, city officials have decided that the industrial plants have been given the service for too small a price.

They have started negotiating with the plants to install meters on their private water supply.

The figure derived therefrom added to the amount of water bought from the city system, will be used to compute the sewage disposal bill.

This is intended to bring the charges levied against industrial users on a par with those charged against residential consumers and will increase sewer department revenue

GOP Delegates Picked In Idaho

COEUR D'ALENE, Idaho —(AP)—The state Republican convention Saturday elected 11 uninstructed delegates to the national meeting. The group was directed, however, to vote as a unit.

The delegates did not disclose their preferences, but party leaders said privately the majority favor Thomas E. Dewey. The Young Republican group, active backers of Harold A. Stassen, placed only one delegate.

Spanish Vets Plan To Renew Their Oaths

The Charles Dick Camp 17, Spanish-American War Veterans, will observe "Mustering Day" on April 21 with a celebration dinner at 6:30 p. m. in the Memorial building.

The day marks the 50th anniversary of the Spanish American War. Fifty-eight veterans of that war will renew the oath they took 50 years ago upon entry into U. S. Service.

Kenneth Dirlam will deliver "The Message to Garcia."

Sergeants Walter C. Johnson and Bobby Bradley, U. S. Marine Corps, hope to show movies on combat scenes during World War II and Master Sergeant Johnson will relate some personal experiences as a Japanese prisoner for 40 months.

Boston Editor Heads Society

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Erwin D. Canham of Boston, editor of the Christian Science Monitor, Saturday became president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Canham was elevated from the first vice-presidency. He succeeds N. R. Howard of the Cleveland News. As retiring president, Howard begins a three-year, non-elective term on the board of directors.

L. R. Blanchard, editorial director of the Gannet newspapers, Rochester, N. Y., was named a director. The only newcomer to the board, Blanchard will fill the two-year, unexpired elective term of Howard.

Steel Output Recovering From Strike

Full Production Expected By May

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Provided "full resumption of mining is effected this week," steel output "will be fully restored by early May," the Magazine Steeel said today.

Up to the end of last week production loss caused by the coal strike amounted to nearly one million tons, estimated the trade journal. Experience has shown that post-strike losses will raise that figure several hundred thousand tons.

The national steelmaking rate was estimated at 73 per cent last week, down five points. The drop was attributed in part to flood conditions in the Ohio river valley. Before the coal strike, the rate was 96 per cent of capacity.

"Talk is heard in the trade of possible price advances later in the year but none of the steel producers have indicated they are planning such action," said Steel. "Continued rise in costs, of course, will be the determining factor, and in event a wage increase comes out of the current negotiations between the steelmakers and the union some upward price adjustments would not be surprising.

"Increased defense requirements and European aid," as well as the tonnage lost during the coal strike, will cause a further tightening of the supply situation, the publication reported.

Eleven Killed In New Outbreaks of Violence In Bogota

Conference Still Held In Suburbs

Diehard Rebels Continue Fight

BOGOTA—(INS)—New outbreaks of violence left eleven dead in Bogota today.

Inter-American conference delegates postponed their return to the city's capitolia building, from which they were driven by the revolt ten days ago, and decided to continue their deliberations in the suburbs.

The new outbreaks were attributed to a few die-hard rebels. Some observers felt they might presage new violence Tuesday when funeral services are held for Jorge Gaitan, liberal leader, whose death precipitated the rebellion.

Two civilians and a soldier were killed when troops broke up a reported attempt to set the luxurious Granada hotel on fire.

In another incident, soldiers besieged a house where rebels were said to have cached a stock of munitions. In an ensuing gunbattle, six civilians and two soldiers were reported killed.

COMMITTEES MEET

Meanwhile, two committees of conference delegates met in secret sessions in an effort to iron out difficulties with which the full steering committee has been unable to cope.

Both concern issues on which the United States delegation has maintained an indifferent attitude, but which Argentina regard as important.

One concerns the future relationship of the inter-American defense board with the pact setting up a "little united nations" for the Americas.

In the second issue, Argentina is proposing to use the historic Pan-American union as the secretariat-general for the new organization of American states.

55-Acre Airport Will Open Next Month Near Shelby

SHELBY—Plans are being made by two brothers from Bowling Green to open an airfield early in May on 55 acres of land leased from Urban Fisher about a mile west of Shelby on routes 39 and 96.

The brothers, M. R. and W. R. Fischer, both World War II AAF pilots, will be sole proprietors of the field. The former had eight months' pilot service in the ETO and is now a member of the reserve officers corps. The other brother was with the Western training command during the war.

The foundation is being poured for the hangar and office. The hangar and shop will be 33 by 42 feet and the office and waiting room 20 by 20.

GI and civilian flight training will be given at the field as well as passenger rides, charter trips, and the repair and maintenance of aircraft.

Included will be two dealerships in the Aeronca and Piper Cub aircraft.

The Fischers have an army trainer, BT-13, and expect to get two more craft soon. They can be contacted at the airport site for information.

SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET

Two Women Escape In Auto Crash

Car Demolished By Speeding Vehicle

ASHLAND—Two Akron young women narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday at 3 a. m. when the car in which they were sitting in front of the Francis hotel was demolished by a speeding car driven by James Sowers, 24, of 4½ Thomas court, Ashland.

Miss Ann Morvay, 633 Diagonal road, and Miss Jean Knight, 1561 Wilbur avenue, both of Akron, were sitting in the car, while the driver, Paul Tingle, 928 Nathan avenue, Akron, was inside the hotel, according to Ashland police.

Sowers was driving down Claremont avenue which ends at Main street just opposite the hotel. The Sowers car failed to turn at Main street, careening across the street into the front end of the Akron car, a 1947 four-door Packard, after which it struck the front of the hotel, smashing a large plate glass window, knocking down a restaurant sign, and tearing up a piece of sidewalk.

Sowers' car, a 1937 Dodge sedan, was demolished but Sowers escaped injury. He was charged with driving while intoxicated and was to be given a hearing in police court today.

According to police, the young women said they were asleep in the car at the time of the smashup. Police did not learn their ages.

Formal Service Solemnized Sunday Evening at St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed Church.

BEFORE an altar banked with palms and ferns and decorated with bouquets of daffodils and orchid snapdragons, Miss Clara Evelyn Bletz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bletz, Route 1, Lexington, became the bride of Rev. Donald T. Martin, Pittsburgh, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Nuptial vows were exchanged in St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church, south of Mansfield. Rev. James R. Davis, brother-in-law of the bride, officiated for the ceremony in the presence of many relatives and friends.

A program of wedding music was played by Miss Evangeline Bletz, sister of the bride, and her brother, Emerson, was the vocal soloist. Illuminating the scene were lighted seven branch candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of silk marquisette, made with full skirt which extended into a train, long sleeves edged with lace and trimming the waist and collar were bands of dainty lace. Her fingertips length veil, edged in lace, was held in place by a tiara of pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with gardenias.

Mrs. Dean Wolf, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor, attired in a gown of yellow net over satin. Miss Janice Baer, cousin of the bride, and Miss Beverly Wesson, close friends of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore like gowns of blue dotted net. Little Janice Young, friend of the bride, was flower girl, attired in a gown of yellow taffeta. Danny Davis, the bride's nephew, served as ring-bearer, wearing a white suit and carrying the rings on a white satin pillow.

The attendants carried bouquets of yellow daffodils.

Mrs. Bletz wore for her daughter's wedding a brown dress with beige and brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Martin, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Brother of the bridegroom, James Martin and Richard Martin of Pittsburgh, were ushers. Gaylord Johnson, Wilmore, Ky., close friend of the groom, was best man.

Immediately following the service a reception was held at the Bletz home for 70 guests. The serving table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bridal couple. Other decorations included tall lighted white tapers and bouquets of spring flowers. During the reception music was furnished by the bridesmaids and matron of honor.

The couple are now honeymooning through the East. For traveling Mrs. Martin wore a navy ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Upon their return they will reside in Anderson, Ind., after June 1.

Well, so much for the dance. The halls will be buzzing with tales of what each couple thought of the dance. The petition that some of the seniors got up on how they will march for classday has gone through. The class will vote again in the very near future. Ralph Juniper, class advisor, said that he would try to explain that the girls and boys would march with each other even if they didn't have a date.

I'll be back next week with the outcome of the election.

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, MONDAY, APRIL 19, 1948

Who knows, maybe it won't be long until $2,000 automobiles will be called "low priced."

One woman expresses belief that she must have been born thirty years too soon, as she can't appreciate profanity, cocktail drinking or cigaret smoking.

All three national conventions will be held in Philadelphia this year—the Republicans starting June 21, the Democrats July 12 and the Wallaceites July 24—thus giving "the City of Brotherly Love" an opportunity to demonstrate that fine quality.

Senator Taft Opposes 'Super-State'

WHATEVER may be individual preferences as to men being mentioned for the Republican presidential nomination, every thoughtful person will give attention to Senator Robert A. Taft's expression of views on the proposed "world super-state," as presented in a speech in Cleveland Saturday night in opening his pre-primary campaign as Ohio's "favorite son" candidate for the presidency.

In the welter of opposing opinions and in the groping for a means of establishing and maintaining world peace, it may be doubted if the potentialities of what is referred to as a "super-state" have been considered by those of us who are not close students of international problems, to which Senator Taft has given years of thought.

The distinction between a "super-state" and an "association of nations" is clearly drawn by Senator Taft, who says: "I am as much opposed to a world super-state as I am in favor of a sound association of nations, because I feel it would defeat the very purpose of all foreign policy—the freedom of our own people."

Such a super-state, he said, would completely destroy the freedom of the people of the United States, as its legislative body could pass tax laws to take our wealth and distribute it elsewhere, and thus destroy our industry and our trade.

"It is conceivable," Senator Taft said, "that the time may come when all the peoples of the world are sufficiently alike in language, philosophy and economic progress to make such a state possible, but today it is utterly dangerous, impractical and ridiculous."

Whether it is regarded as an advantage or a disadvantage, Senator Taft is rightly regarded as a rarity in American politics—he says frankly what he believes to be true, and acts in accord with his honest opinions, regardless of political consequences. His pre-primary utterances in his home state may well be given the careful thought they deserve.

Bellville May Be Showing the Way

WHILE Trumbull and Lake counties are stirred by grand jury investigations of alleged gambling activities in those areas, it is interesting to note that Richland county's village of Bellville has adopted the simple process of having council pass a resolution ordering strict enforcement of anti-gambling laws in that village.

And, furthermore, Bellville's Mayor Charles Palm is quoted as saying the ban on gambling will stay "until hell freezes over"—which, unless deep freeze processes extend further than is realized—should be quite awhile.

And there's also a movement in Bellville to keep boys under 18 out of pool rooms—which raises the point that some more wholesome atmosphere needs be provided for young people in villages, towns and cities if objectionable attractions are to be successfully counteracted.

In any event, having in mind the "flop" of Police Chief Schwab's recent "permanent" ban on commercialized gambling in Mansfield, the Bellville experiment will be watched with interest—as action by council to order law enforcement introduces a new angle into the situation.

Yes, 'It Could Happen Here'

STERN WARNING to parents, and to teen age boys and girls as well, is seen in the recent sorrowful happening in Medina county, as a result of which an attractive 17-year-old girl is dead and a 19-year-old youth faces a murder charge after admitting he had drugged the girl who died later from monoxide fumes piped into the car in which the two young people had been "out for a ride."

As explained by the now badly frightened boy, circumstances leading up to the tragedy were quite commonplace, with a "date" arranged after the girl had finished work as a waitress at a drive-in restaurant near Medina. The young folks drove to a nearby town to see a movie; then to a restaurant for a milkshake, into which the youth slipped a bit of powder recognized as a sex excitant; next there was the drive to a lonely country lane . . . then the girl became unconscious and later died.

The boy hadn't intended to kill her—they were merely "out for a good time"—in fact he had an excellent record for behavior, although he had sometimes boasted of "his way with women." His parents are heartbroken and bewildered. They had scrimped to send him to college and were very proud of him. Not what?—they wonder.

Some Ants Show Human Traits

EVEN the ants aren't working to full capacity these days. Scientists from the American Museum of Natural History, who have been studying ants in Panama, report that 40 per cent loaf about the nest all day without doing any work. Another 40 per cent are good workers, and the rest labor "occasionally." Just like humans!

The old advice was "Go to the ant, thou sluggard, consider his ways and be wise." Apparently it makes a difference which ant the sluggard picks.

Word comes that a deodorizer is being installed in Madison Square Garden to relieve the Ringling circus of its smell—but then how's it to be recognized as a real circus?

As Claude Callan views it: "It really takes two to make a quarrel in the home. It takes mother to do the talking and father to do the listening."

What Some Other People Are Saying

House Speaker JOSEPH W. MARTIN: "I would talk with Joe Stalin if I could end the mad rush toward war and prevent a conflagration which would destroy civilization."

French Foreign Minister GEORGES BIDAULT, commenting on the signing by sixteen nations of western Europe of a convention for economic coordination: "It is the first step in the formation of Europe. The road is long, which leads to the final goal, but it is an important step."

CHARLES LUCKMAN, president of Lever Brothers company and [illegible] of the Citizens' Food Conservation committee: "Free peoples like those of France and America must set an example of mutual as[illegible] in this anxious world or the world as we have known it will perish."

Some People Don't Have "Green Thumbs."

Raymond Moley's Analysis

Steer Clear of 'Dark Horse' Nominee

TO Raymond A. McConnell, jr., editor of the Journal newspapers in Lincoln, Neb., credit is due for making possible the only real test we shall get of the relative popularity of Republican candidates.

Wisconsin was not a good test. It was in Stassen's front yard. He had a long-standing organization there and enjoyed, as did Dewey in New Hampshire, the support of the Republican organization. MacArthur was set up as a favorite son. Hence, Dewey was licked from the start.

Nebraska is another story. All candidates were entered on fairly even terms. The avowed candidates spread their wares. The voting population is representative of most of America—partly urban, partly rural.

The nation-wide attention this test received reveals in an exceedingly forceful way how wretchedly undemocratic is our method of choosing presidential candidates.

The presidential primary, hailed 35 years ago as a great progressive step, has failed miserably. For many reasons candidates warily avoid such tests. The favorite-son idea offers an excuse to keep outside candidates from participating.

As a result, nominations are made by all sorts of conventions and committees. And every national convention runs the risk of a deadlock, which can and almost always does give us a candidate who is not a popular choice and who usually makes a poor president. No dark horse president ever succeeded himself. That is the verdict of history.

* * *

Should Avoid Stalemate.

THE NEBRASKA lesson should provide guidance for delegates from all states. It will provide guidance for those who are sufficiently conscientious to want to give the people the candidate they prefer.

Such delegates might well resolve that one of the three Nebraska leaders should be nominated. That is a valid conclusion, because Stassen, Dewey and Taft are likely to have most delegates.

To permit these three to reach a stalemate would be a reflection not only on these candidates themselves, but also on the delegates.

There will be plenty of people at the Philadelphia convention who will try to overturn all three and foist upon the country a "smoke-filled room" choice.

The great states of Illinois and Pennsylvania will have 129 votes to throw around. There will be devious and selfish attempts to seek a candidate whose roots are in the past. Two such men already are talked about.

But Taft, Stassen and Dewey have distinction which entitle them to special consideration. They probably will lead in delegates, and their public careers belong with the generation which has come of age since Roosevelt entered the White House.

This is a year when youth should have the call. The next president will have a stupendous burden to carry. He must not only be incredibly vital and active. He also must have a mind sufficiently flexible to marshal policies which are in harmony with postwar facts.

All the leading candidates can answer those specifications. Delegates need not look elsewhere for a candidate.

A LOT of political horse-players are wondering if Stassen is using a battery or is a "ringer." He has more speed than some of those Kentucky Derby entries.

Washington Calling

Air Subsidies Fly High

By MARQUIS CHILDS

NEW nominations keep coming in for the Oscar for the year's most high-powered lobbying. With re-enforcements swelling the ranks of the pressure boys from day to day in this era of bigger and better lobbies, the judges have an almost impossible task.

Claim to the honor is being pressed in behalf of the Big Five airlines that carry most of the country's mail and passenger traffic. And it's an impressive claim.

The Civil Aeronautics Board just awarded the Big Five—American, Eastern, TWA, United and Northwest — an increase in mail pay which will cost the taxpayer at least an additional $5,000,000 over and above the $21,000,000 they now get.

The increase is proposed although Eastern Airlines will show a rate of profit computed by CAB at 36 percent after taxes, and the other four companies will average a 10 percent return.

There is a report that Senator Homer Ferguson and Senator Styles Bridges are getting interested in an investigation into the whole mail-subsidy system. Such an investigation occurred not long after the Democrats came into power in 1933. It produced some sizzling facts about the power of the lobbies working for ocean and air mail subsidies and the tactics they employed.

Figuring out the actual cost of carrying the air mail, in relation to the subsidy payments, is something the CAB has never got around to doing. The question of cost, particularly when the airlines talk about it, is surrounded by such clouds of statistics, qualifications and reservations that the ordinary person is left in a state of confusion.

But here is a significant contrast. With the new pay increase included, the CAB finds that the Big Five must get 58 cents a ton-mile as a "service rate" for carrying the mail. At the same time the Big Five have applied for, and CAB has approved, rates for carrying cargo as low as 12½ cents a ton mile.

Since the air ail is business which does not have to be solicited and since the ground handling is performed by the government, it is extraordinary that CAB should find that carrying the mail costs almost five times as much as carrying cargo.

* * *

Veterans Squeezed Out.

PUT another fact alongside this. Ambitious young veterans have formed a number of air freight lines. For two years these small companies have waited for CAB to act on their applications to operate chartered routes. Thus far not a single application has been granted. Some of the little companies have had to fold up, a fact which one of the Big Five executives noted with smug self-satisfaction not long ago.

This is true even though cargo traffic and the development of cargo planes have lagged far behind both economic and military necessity. Every politician professes to be for little business and competition. Yet these veterans' airlines have not been given a chance to show what they could do toward developing the great potential of air cargo traffic.

It is not so much that the airlines are operating at a high ratio of cost to the government. What is serious is that, so long as the cushion of the subsidy is there, the nation is not likely to get the kind of expansion which is vital to national security both at home and abroad.

A thorough senate investigation would look into the foreign field too. Post-office records show that Pan-American Airways got $16,656,624 in mail pay last year and is petitioning CAB for $11,000,000 more.

In Joseph J. O'Connell, jr., the CAB has a new chairman. A new member is still to be appointed. There is a chance to break away from the course of least resistance, which is increasingly to give everything to a few dominant companies. It will not be easy to change the pattern. But there is still time if there is also the will to make the change.

Truman's Snap Decisions Hurt Palestine

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—When Jimmie Byrnes was attending the Paris peace conference in October 1946, President Truman phoned him that he had just made a statement proposing the admission of 100,000 Jewish refugees into Palestine.

He had learned, the President informed his secretary of state, that Governor Dewey was going to make a similar refugee proposal on the eve of a Jewish holiday so he had decided to beat Dewey to it.

A few minutes later, Foreign Minister Bevins came into Byrnes's hotel room, greatly upset. He wanted to know why the United States was proposing a policy of vital importance to a British-mandated country without first consulting the British Government. Byrnes explained the circumstances.

"It's unfortunate," observed Bevin, "that you have to have your foreign policy run from New York. By the way," he asked, "do you have any more elections in New York soon?"

* * *

Palestine Tragedy.

HASTY snap decisions have been one of the causes of the Palestine tragedy.

After months of discussion, after two international commissions had gone to Palestine to study the problem, and after the United Nations had held prolonged debate, their final decision was reversed by President Truman in less than one hour.

Three days before he reversed the partition of Palestine, he told visiting senators that under no circumstances would the UN's decision be changed. One day before the reversal he told a prominent Jewish leader there would be no reversal.

Yet the next day, Secretary of Defense Forrestal called at the White House, played up to the President's ego, told him he was too big a man to be swayed by politics, and overnight the United Nations was told that the United States held the last word on the partition of Palestine.

Result: The chanceries of the world are wondering how much confidence they can put in American foreign policy in the future.

Note—It was Secretary Forrestal's banking firm which floated the money for American oil companies in Arabia.

* * *

End of the Cavalry.

MOST senators who heard the debate between Oklahoma's speculating Senator Elmer Thomas and Oregon's forthright Wayne Morse regarding Army remount stations didn't have any inkling of what was behind it.

For more than a year, the Army, having given up cavalry, has wanted to turn its remount stations over to the agriculture department to be used for farm horse-breeding. But Senator Thomas of Oklahoma, former chairman of the agriculture committee, has said no. He has especially opposed transfer of the Army's remount station at El Reno, Oklahoma, to the agriculture department.

Significantly just before the vote on this bill last year, Thomas asked Secretary of Agriculture Anderson for a letter stating that neither he nor his wife had speculated on the cotton market. Thomas said he wanted to be able to use the letter to deny a statement about his cotton speculating published in this column.

Anderson, however, replied that he could not truthfully write such a letter, and refused. Whereupon Thomas blocked Anderson's department from getting the El Reno remount station.

This year, the bill came up again. This time, Senator Morse was pushing the bill. Morse happens to be not only the Senate's most expert horseman, but also has introduced a bill requiring all senators to register their stock and commodity market transactions.

The bill was aimed directly at Senator Thomas.

So when the Army remount bill came up for a vote the other day, Thomas of Oklahoma tried to block it. By this time he may have had another reason for saying no. Oil is reported to exist under El Reno's 8,000 acres, and the oil companies have wanted the station sold to private bidders.

In the debates, however, Senator Thomas never mentioned oil. Nor did he mention his gripe at Morse for having introduced the bill requiring all senators to register their stock and commodity deals. But he did his best to defeat the bill just the same.

However, Senator Taft stuck with Morse. He let the bill come to a vote. It passed by a comfortable margin.

Inside the KKK.

Minutes of the Ku Klux Klan—Klavern No. 1, Atlanta, April 12—Klansman Autry, co-owner of the Autry-Loundes Funeral Home, launched vigorous attack on Drew Pearson for announcing that the Klan would burn a cross at Augusta. All Klansmen were urged to catch Pearson's spy.

"I will be glad to bury the rat free of charge, courtesy of the Autry-Loundes Funeral Home," offered Autry.

Grand Dragon Green bemoaned the fact that for the second successive week there were no applications for reinstatement or new membership in Klavern No. 1, despite the fact that he had just launched a membership drive.

"This is a hell of a way to start a membership drive," complained the grand dragon.

DeWitt Mackenzie's Column

Czechs Oust Germans

CZECHOSLOVAKIA is pursuing to the bitter end her post-war policy of removing all Germans from her western boundary zone so that they can't again be a threat to her security as they were in '39—and who can blame her.

It's going on ten years since your columnist reported the triumphal Hitlerian procession over flower-strewn roads into little Czechoslovakia's Sudetenland which had been handed the fuehrer by the weak-kneed allies at the Munich conference. In the public square of the ancient city of Eger I stood on a reviewing platform and heard the nazi chief's harsh gutturals pour out through loudspeakers to the great crowd of citizens.

"Egerlanders! Never again will this land be torn away from the Reich. Over the German, the greater German reich, lie the sheltering German shield and the protecting German sword. You, yourselves, are part of this protection . . ."

As I listened in disgust to this prediction, which went so sour on the fuehrer, an Associated Press photographer snapped a picture of me when I wasn't looking. A colleague ran across that picture up in the AP news photo library a couple of days ago and showed it to me. It was the likeness of a reporter who was furious enough to fight—a fact which I'm proud to record here.

But to get back to our muttons: When Hitler overran Czechoslovakia a little later in the World war, there were in the Sudetenland close to 3,000,000 Germans, and perhaps another half million in Czechoslovakia. These people, true to their blood, helped betray Czechoslovakia to the enemy.

Came the end of the war and the Prague government swore a mighty oath that this never should happen again. The Czech authorities began forthwith to deal with the situation and by the middle of 1947 more than 3,000,000 Germans had been thrown back into Germany. Most of these came from the Sudetenland, and they were replaced by Czechs.

Few Allowed To Stay.

SINCE then other Germans have been sent back or have been transferred to various parts of Czechoslovakia, until there remain only 200,000—mostly skilled workers — in the northwest and southwest border areas of Czechoslovakia. Prague government has decreed that they must move.

The American zone in Germany announced last autumn that it wouldn't accept any more forced populations transfers. Russia said some would be admitted to the Soviet zone of Germany. So Prague has ordered that all of the remaining Germans, excepting those admitted into the Soviet zone, must be dispersed into the interior of Czechoslovakia. That will clear the border area completely.

Well, at least Germany got back these 3,000,000 and they undoubtedly are a godsend, for labor is needed there. Apart from more than 2,000,000 German soldiers killed in the war, 4,000,000 were wounded and close to 3,000,000 are recorded as missing.

Undoubtedly many of the missing are among the great numbers who still are prisoners of war in European allied countries. Russia has a large number.

So far as concerns Czechoslovakia she has fairly well cleaned out all the German population which she felt threatened her security. That undoubtedly is wise, although it will be a long, long time before Germany will recover sufficient strength to feel like starting another war.

Speaking of Your Health

Is Air Travel Harmful?

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

A QUESTION which physicians are hearing more and more often nowadays is, "Doctor, will it do me any harm to go by plane?" Many people like the speed and convenience of air travel but want to know first whether there are medical reasons against making such a trip.

Generally, there are not, particularly where, as is often the case, the airplane is equipped with a pressure-controlled cabin. On the other hand, if the air pressure within the cabin is not controlled, passengers must adjust themselves to changes in the air pressure.

Some Exceptions.

The normal, healthy person will be able to do this with little or no discomfort but the same pressure changes may be dangerous for those with some types of heart or lung disease.

Those who has asthma seldom have an attack during an airplane trip. However, it is suggested that oxygen be available for the emergency treatment of such patients should an attack occur.

Sitting quietly in an airplane causes no more strain than moderate exercise on the ground. Thus, anybne—even a heart patient—who is able to carry on ordinary activities without distress, should stand air travel satisfactorily.

May Need Oxygen.

If walking for a short distance causes shortness of breath in a patient with heart disease, he should not travel by airplane unless facilities are provided for giving him oxygen continuously during the trip.

Patients who have anemia or lessening of the coloring matter or red cells in the blood usually can take airplane trips without any difficulty. However, if the blood count is below half the normal, it may be necessary to give a blood transfusion before the trip is taken in an airplane.

If the person has had a rupture of the ear drum, which has recently healed, it may reopen during an airplane trip, but this, as a rule, can be prevented by chewing gum since this helps equalize the pressure in the ear.

It is also interesting to note that infected sinuses often empty themselves of secretions as the plane rises in the air, but the sinuses may close up when the plane comes down, causing some pain.

Travel or motion sickness may be prevented by the use of certain drugs, such as tropine or hyoscine.

Horoscope

For Tuesday, April 20.

It is a day for directing all the energetic and initiative on desired plans of major importance Such must be tackled with energy, skill, constructive ability and well-executed techniques, which are quite likely to run up against a difficult snag or impasse of tenacious resistance. Flying off the handle, attempting to force issues by main force or unwise changes could prove disruptive, as could unfair criticism or rancour There is much progress and production for calm and planned action.

For the Birthday.

Those whose birthday it is have the augury of a progressive and productive year, with growth and expansion of a new buildup of major significance This against disruptive and unexpected forces, upsetting plans and blocking constructive work, largely by intemperate words and deeds, acrid criticism and enmity, with lack of amiability or efforts for friendly cooperation for joint benefit and progress. Moderation and good will have more power than aggressive or rash moves

A child born on this day has splendid abilities and energy for success and exceptional expansion in life, but its over-strenuous tactics might work against its highest aims

U. S. Keeps 400 Bombers In Readiness

S-A-C Ranks As Small But Potent Force

By WILLIAM F. McMENAMIN

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A small but potent force of 400 long range bombers would strike the first counter-blow at any enemy attacking the United States.

The bombers are in the strategic air command under Gen. George C. Kenney, veteran of the Pacific war and a pioneer in air warfare. Under him are 5,000 officers and 40,000 enlisted men.

The task of this force is:

1. To conduct long range operations in any part of the world.

2. To prepare combat units capable of intense and sustained operations in all parts of the world.

3. To prepare its crews for "global bombardment operations."

INCREASE ASKED

Air Secretary W Stuart Symington has proposed increasing this force under a 70-group program to 21 groups or about 630 planes.

The S-A-C is seldom idle Its planes are shuttling constantly on training missions to the far ends of the earth

The superfortress bombers of the S-A-C take off from fields in the United States on long simulated combat missions to Europe, Japan, Hawaii and the Caribbean and up into Alaska and the Polar regions.

The European missions go by way of either Goose Bay, Labrador or Keflavik, Iceland, to Furstenfeldbruck, Germany A full group of 30 planes is on such a mission to Europe now.

Some Superforts fly training missions from Germany down over the Alps, Italy and the Mediterranean to Cairo, Egypt, and Dhahran, Saudi Arabia.

FLY TO JAPAN, TOO

On the other side of the globe they fly to Yokota base near Tokyo, Japan by way of Hawaii and Guam or Anchorage, Alaska, and the Aleutian chain

The flights to Europe and Japan are usually made by a group of 30 planes or a squadron of 10 B-29's. The flights to Hawaii are made by single planes or up to three planes.

The S-A-C consists of two major air forces and several smaller commands with bases scattered throughout the United States.

The eighth air force under Gen. Roger M. Ramey has its headquarters at Walker Field, Tex. The fifteenth air force under Maj. Gen. Leon W. Johnson heads up at Smoky Hill, Kan Gen Kenney has his headquarters at Andrews Field, Md., near Washington.

Old Time Free Lunch Again Has Foot In Barroom Door

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK —(AP)— The old time "free lunch" is back—at least it has one foot in the barroom door.

It is coming back the hard way, one street at a time. So far it has been seen here chiefly in poor men's stork clubs along the Bowery and Third avenue

Rat cheese and salami sandwiches now bloom again in scattered bars in the shadow of the "El" like spring flowers poking up through old snow And barflies—excuse me, gentlemen with a dime—are greeting them with glad cries. In the tonier establishments even the pickle is back.

The new free lunch is only a morsel of its old robust self.

Time was when the free lunch was big enough to give a harvest hand the colic.

Remember?

For a nickel beer a hungry citizen of good standing could waddle over to a counter creaking under plates stacked with roast beef, baked ham, boiled ham, oysters, steamed clams, three kinds of cheese, hardboiled eggs, lunch meats, pickles, relish, stacked bread and huge slices of raw white onion, fragrant of Bermuda.

In the classier joints a burly bartender with a "keep off" look stood guard to shoo customers with run-down heels away from the trough

But its comeback on Third avenue is significant. Why? Because Third avenue is to the elbow-bending gentry what the Aberdeen proving ground is to artillery—a testing field that sets the trend.

In the bars along this noisy thoroughfare where roaring overhead "El" trains make conversation a muscular feat, Park avenue comes to ogle "the characters." "The characters" like to ogle right back

Fads that become popular here often set the pattern for the town—spread one way by "the characters" and the other by the penthouse "swells" This may spell a new future for the free lunch.

Marine Veteran, 71, Wants a Motorcycle

By GAYLE HAYES

Jake Grossenbacher is going to buy a motorcycle.

That may not sound like startling news, but perhaps you don't know Jake. But you should meet him, because Jake claims to be the oldest ex-marine in Mansfield, and perhaps he's right at that. After all, he's been drawing a pension since 1931 for serving more than 20 years in the "corps." The first day he spent as a U. S. Marine was Oct. 13, 1899.

And, despite his age, he's planning to get that new motorcycle and get ready to do some fancy riding next summer.

Grossenbacher has a ready mind and active body, and he credits his service in the Marines from 1899 to 1921 as one of the principal reasons for his sturdy health. He can recall events of the past in quick fashion, and tells of how the Marines lived in a "coal shed" when stationed in Honolulu back in 1908 and 1909, "just as we were beginning to build at Pearl Harbor."

He also served at San Domingo and at Haiti during World War I, and worked in a brass foundry as well as serving as a deputy sheriff during the recent war.

"When I joined the Marines," sighs Jake, "we got $12.80 a month and a horse blanket. And the food wasn't too good, either, but it was food. Why, the first meal I had as a Marine was two hard-boiled eggs and a couple of pieces of bread. Oh, yes, and a cup of black coffee."

CHOW LOOKED GOOD

Later, when he was mustered out of the service at Wheeling, W. Va., that Marine chow looked mighty good.

"I was out about two months, and I was getting lonesome," recalls Jake, "and I was getting hungry, too. So I went down to the recruiting office and told them I was hungry and I'd like to get something to eat. I had my uniform in my suitcase, and it didn't take long to unpack it, get sworn in, and go back into the Marines, where they had food."

Jake lives at 22 Florence avenue, although his original enlistment was at Cleveland, and he spent several years in Columbus since his retirement.

"Down there I was a good bowler, too," he goes on, "reckon I could skin 'em all, but now that I'm past 71 years old, I guess my average would be around 180 or so. I don't know, because I haven't bowled very much lately."

During the first World War he reached the rating of first sergeant, but was reduced to sergeant after the war and draws a sergeant's pension.

He has one bit of advice to young Marines. "Stay in the corps," he pleads. "It's a good job. Regular pay. Good living, and you're serving your country. And don't forget—you young fellows. You can retire when still a young man and never have to worry about the future."

Two Will Attend TB Association

BUCYRUS — Crawford county will be represented by at least two members of the local Tuberculosis and Health association at the district meeting of 11 TB groups at Tiffin Wednesday. Attending from the county will be Mrs. F. J. Gosser of Crestline, executive secretary of the county organization, and Mrs. Fabian LaLonde, Leesville, alternate from the county.
